

OPEN ACCESS AND LICENCING STATEMENT

1. OPEN ACCESS

Techno Science is a peer-reviewed scientific journal that applies a Full Open Access model. The entire content of the journal is available to users free of charge immediately after publication.

Users are permitted to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search or link the full text of the papers without prior consent of the publisher or author, subject to the terms of the licence set forth below.

The journal's open access policy is based on the principles of the Budapest Open Access Initiative.

The journal does not charge a subscription fee for accessing the content.

2. LICENCE

All papers published in the Techno Science journal are licensed under the following licence:

Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0)

This licence allows:

- sharing (copying and redistributing material in any medium or format),
- customising (remixing, transforming and upgrading materials),
- use for commercial and non-commercial purposes,

provided that the appropriate authorship, the source of the original publication and a link to the licence are indicated alongside any potential changes.

3. COPYRIGHT (Copyright Statement)

Authors retain the copyright over their works.

By publishing a paper in the Techno Science journal, the authors give the journal the right to publish the paper for the first time and the right to distribute the paper in all forms and media.

The copyright remains the property of the author.

4. ARCHIVING

Authors have the perpetual right to deposit:

- a published version of the paper (Publisher's Version / PDF),
- the paper in institutional and thematic repositories,
- the paper on personal and academic websites, with the obligatory citation of the full bibliographic data and the source of the original publication in the Techno Science journal.

5. PUBLICATION FEES

The Techno Science journal does not currently charge a fee for processing and publishing papers. In the event of a decision by the Techno Science journal to introduce a fee for processing and publishing papers, information on the amount and possible exemptions will be made publicly available on the journal's website.
